

PISA IS FOR KIDS

WORK IS BOOK

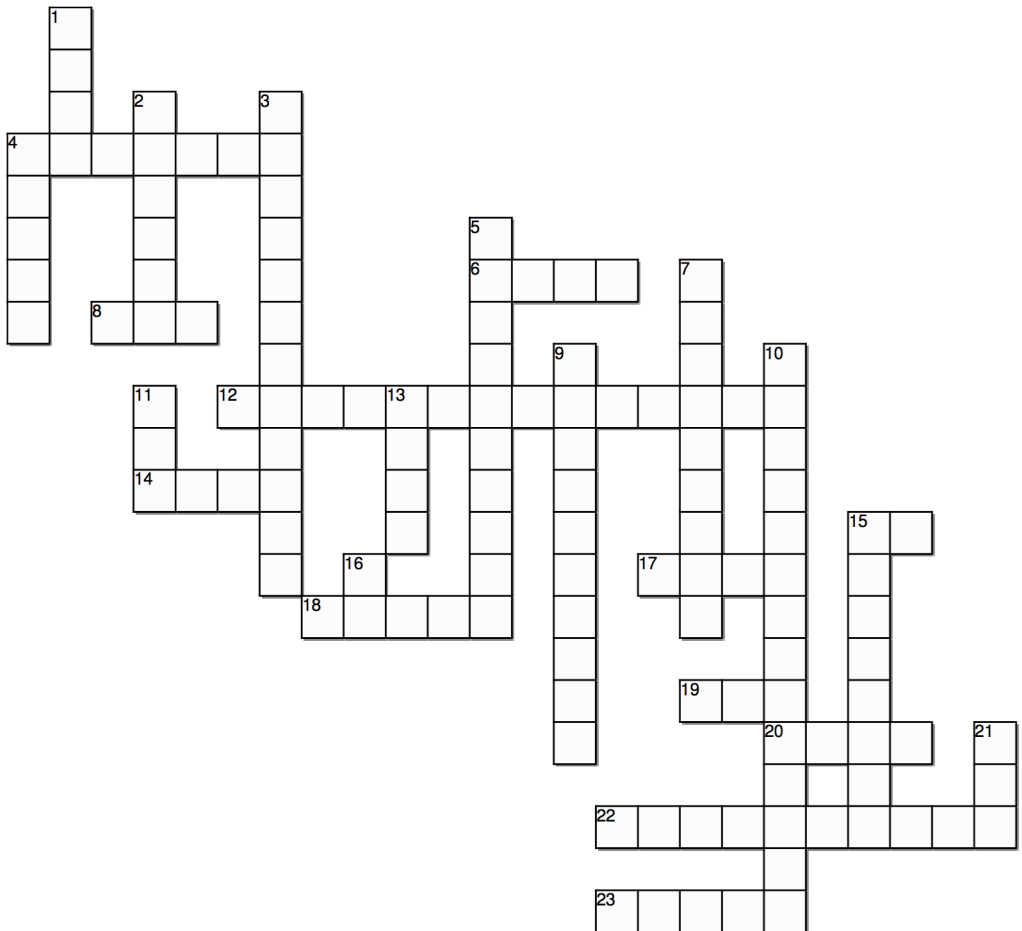

The flag of Italy is a tricolor featuring three equally sized vertical pales of green, white, and red, with the green at the hoist side. Its current form has been in use since 19 June 1946 and was formally adopted on 1 January 1948.

The flag from Pisa was bright red, resulting from the imperial Blutfahne. Subsequently, in 1017, Pope Benedict VIII granted the coat of arms of the cross to fight the Saracens in Sardinia. The cross was the emblem of the people of Pisa, and not exactly in the city. The flag became known as "Cross Pisana".
